Dear Colleague

Clinical Academic Research Careers

We are very pleased to announce the launch of a National Guidance for Clinical Academic Research Careers for Nursing, Midwifery and Allied Health Professions in Scotland. This document is now available to download from the NHS Education for Scotland website at:

<http://www.nes.scot.nhs.uk/about-nes/publications/national-guidance-for-clinical-academic-research-careers-for-nursing-midwifery-and-allied-health-professions-in-scotland>

This document has been prepared in collaboration with NMAHP partners from NHS Boards, Universities and Professional Organisations. It is intended that this document will be used to support and inform the development and implementation of Clinical Academic Research Careers.

If you have any queries relating to this document please contact Andrew Palfreyman, Project Officer, at the address above.

Yours sincerely
