Summary

'Have you paused and checked?' posters and prompt cards have been published to serve as a handy reminder for radiographers carrying out MRI examinations. The posters are designed in a PDF format to allow for easy downloading and printing. They can then be displayed in the department as required. There are A4 and A3 sizes available and also an A6 version that is small enough to be placed close to a machine or work station. The guidance covers patient checks, anatomical checks, user checks, system and settings checks, exposure checks and reminders on what to do at the end of an examination.
