Do you aspire to join a leading Trust in Northern Ireland?

Belfast Health and Social Care Trust have two exciting opportunities available to join our Ultrasound Imaging Service. We are looking for two enthusiastic and experienced Sonographers to lead our Ultrasound Service. One lead post is based at Belfast City Hospital while the other lead post is based at Musgrave Park Hospital. The roles involve day to day running of the US department and staff, including both managerial and clinical duties. The post holders will provide leadership in driving quality and efficiency service developments, with a particular focus on advanced practice and the professional development of the team.
