13. IMAGING AND THERAPY PRACTICE

13.1 This item was brought for discussion by the Chair as he wanted DIAG’s opinion on the quality of the articles in I&TP.

13.1.1 A discussion followed.

Suggestions made to raise the quality of the magazine were:
- Academic and clinical staff to ‘buddy up’ and write articles
- Review the strategic direction of the journal
- Publish Good Practice articles
- Produce an article on writing ‘an article for I&TP’
- Have a review of readership and their thoughts
- Create a system of review using advisory groups/experts
- Six issues a year instead of 12

13.1.2 It was agreed that:
- I&TP is a valuable magazine and the only thing that many radiographers read.
- Good for sharing ideas
- It is half journalistic and half academic
- Ask the question if this is where I&TP wants to stay?
13.1.3 There was a feeling that I&TP need to move on and decide if it should be a Professional Discussion Journal. Mentorship would be ideal to encourage more radiographers to carry out more research. SJ will take this issue to the Professional and Education Team meeting next week and feedback to DIAG.

14. ANY OTHER BUSINESS

14.1 VH had a question around x-rays and the correct wording to be used. Should it be ‘plain film radiography’ or ‘projection radiography’? SCoR’s stance on this issue would be appreciate. SJ agreed to investigate and respond to VH.
